Thank you all so much for your concern, kindness and encouragement through prayer, phone calls, cards, and emails during my recent surgery. --Peggy Cookman

I Praise the Lord and thank you friends who have prayed for me and sent me cards during my LAST surgery. Your prayers have been like sweet incense to the Lord and he has granted your petitions. As of right now I am cancer free and with the Lord watching over me will continue to be that way until He comes! My heartfelt thanks again, love Gunda.

As a church of prayer, every Sabbath we will print the names of people requesting special prayer for two weeks.

If you have a prayer request or a praise report, please fill out a gray card in the pews and hand it to a Deacon or drop it in the offering plate. If you would like a member of the Pastoral Staff to contact you regarding your request, please indicate this on your prayer request card as well. Each request is remembered during the staff meetings and is kept confidential unless requested to appear in the bulletin

Our 2010 monthly budget is $13,000.00.
Last month, we've received $13,083.25!

Lemon Bars Recipe

Ingredients

For the crust:
 ¾ cups margarine
 1 ½ cups flour
 1/3 cups powdered sugar

For the filling:
 6 eggs (separated)
 3 cups sugar
 2 Tbs. sifted flour
 4 Tbs. = ¼ cup fresh lemon juice
 2 Tsp. lemon peel

Directions

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. Lightly grease a 9 by 13 by 2-inch pan.

For the crust:

Sift together the flour and powdered sugar, add the margarine and mix till well combined. Press the mixture into the prepared pan. You may need to dip your fingers into a little flour or confectioners' sugar to keep the dough from sticking to your fingers. Bake the crust for 15 to 20 minutes, until very lightly browned. Allow crust to cool.

For the filling:

Beat the egg whites separately to stiff peak, when beater is turned upside down the egg white peak will stand stiff. Set aside. Beat by hand or with electric mixer the sifted flour, sugar, egg yolks, lemon juice and lemon peel together. Then fold in egg whites with a rubber spatula. Pour filling over cooled crust and bake for 20 minutes, until the filling is set. Let cool to room temperature.

Cut into 20 squares to make 40 triangles and dust with powdered sugar.

Upcoming Series:

The Adventist Edge

Do we have something to give to the world that is worth giving your life to, spending time, energy, passion, commitment? What is our Adventist Edge? Loma Linda centenarians? ADRA? Beliefs? An attempt to define the best of Adventism before the meetings, all from the Gospels and the teachings of Jesus, to fire up our passions to invite people to come and hear.
