January 20, 2012

DEAR SAINTS!

As the stock market goes up—and a ship goes down—and politicians fight for votes—we pull up the walls of the Sabbath around us and stop it all and tune it all out! Light a candle, put on some music, and get reconnected with God! Last Friday night my sons showed me how to use Pandora—and as I worked until late at night trying to sort out what Daniel 11 really means—my ears and soul were filled with Michael W. Smith and all the other songs that Pandora thinks go with him—a great way to start the Sabbath!

HERITAGE SINGERS—Next Saturday night, 5:30 pm, Fellowship Hall. We are turning this into a mini-SEARCH, with a light meal at 4:45 pm, videos, and then the Heritage Singers, with a 15-20 minute evangelistic message I will have halfway through—“IS 2012 THE END AS WE KNOW IT?!” Then the Heritage Singers will give the rest of their concert. This is the easiest and best time to invite somebody to come—everybody is talking about 2012 and the Mayan Calendar—and your guest could win the Barbecue! The winner will be drawn that night!

BARBECUE—Hopefully you have received the email and the flyer today. Three more chances for a guest who has not come before to GGSDA—Non-Adventist hopefully, but an Adventist who has not been attending can put their name in too!—January 21 tomorrow, Jan. 28 Sabbath morning, and the Heritage Singers concert Jan. 28 pm. They have to be there that night to get this great barbecue, and you would get $300 in groceries for the Party!

Here is all that is coming up this weekend—
