welcome message from pastor dan

WELCOME to GGSDA! I welcome you this morning from 8,000 miles away! I am with 103 of us, who are holding 13 series of evangelistic meetings in Santa Cruz in the Philippines! We are blessed to be here, but will miss being with the GGSDA-side of our family these next two Sabbaths. It is after midnight here as I write. We finished our meeting at my site tonight with over 150 children who attended our Vacation Bible School and then stayed for the message . . . a great challenge to preach messages for the adults with 150 children sitting between you and their parents! Most of the sites are facing the same challenge as well as the Philippine rain! And tonight we had the additional challenge of the picture going blank for 10 minutes during the message while our team crawled around on the floor trying to find the disconnect! But still, overall God has been doing some amazing things! We have over 1,000 people coming to the meetings and our two health clinics have helped more than 600 people! In addition, we have been painting churches and pouring cement at construction sites. Twenty of our group did hospital visitation this morning and a group of us will go into a prison tomorrow afternoon and help baptize 70 to 80 precious souls, who may not be forgiven by the state but will come out of the water forgiven by the ONE Who Really Counts! May God be with all of you, and please pray that our work here will bring precious souls to God!

Pastor Dan
