welcome message from pastor dan

WELCOME TO GARDEN GROVE TODAY! Many of us feel this Sabbath is like the Last Supper before Easter weekend. In the same way that the Last Supper was a chance for Jesus to gather strength by being with His favorite people before the greatest and most pivotal weekend in the history of the universe, this weekend is our last chance to be together, to pray, and to fully energize our souls as we ramp up for our Uncovered evangelistic meetings that begin next weekend. We fully believe that these two weeks of meetings will be the greatest and most pivotal days in some people's lives as they come, as they hear the messages, and as they make eternal commitments of their lives to God! We are praying that God will anoint our speaker, the musicians, the drama team, the audio visual team, the translation team, the food team, the registration team, the Children's Ministry team, the prayer team . . . and particularly all of us—the visitation team—as we invite people to come.

THE SANCTUARY AT 9:30AM AND DIVINE WORSHIP AT 11:30AM: I am speaking for both services today. The message is a discussion of the John 8 story of the woman caught in adultery: When the Accusers Will All Walk Away.

BAPTISM AND DEDICATION: We are baptizing a wonderful young woman, Bahareh Habibi. Originally from Iran, she has grown up here and is a lawyer. Bahareh made her decision to be baptized this week and did not want to wait another week to be baptized! We will also dedicate Jaden Troche, the young son of Joshua and Tatiana Troche, a new young couple coming to GGSDA. Welcome all of these people to the Church of Jesus Christ, the Seventh-day Adventist Church, and particularly to GGSDA!

DOUBT NIGHT IS TONIGHT FROM 5:30PM TO 6:30PM IN THE FELLOWSHIP HALL. Bring a friend who has big doubts and questions that need answering! Come and ask your own big questions! This is your chance to see if there are any rational answers to questions that have tempted you to doubt whether the whole thing is even true or not!

God bless you all and happy Sabbath!
