We're mixing it up at (the)Sanctuary tomorrow!

It's an all-music hour of worship with a homily by our very own, Greg Batla!

Tomorrow is Greg's last Sabbath as Executive Producer of (the)Sanctuary! Greg has provided an anchoring leadership for our worship team through thick and thin - we are going to dearly miss him! So, you can't miss (the)Sanctuary tomorrow! We get to sing almost the whole time, hear Greg's heart for God and from God, plus show him our love for all he's done! Greg, we thank God for you & we love you! May God bless you always!

Another reason you can't miss tomorrow is because I have just received word that our youngest band member, Ian Reyes, and his whole family, is moving back to Texas. So, we are also saying goodbye to the Reyes' at tomorrow! Oh what a gift they have been - Dina, Nick, Ian, and Alec. This family breathes the joy of God's vision and mission to transform lives in worship. Reyes' family, you are dearly loved and we will miss you!

All of that at 9:30am tomorrow morning!

But that's not all! Our dear friends, Michael and Candice Tuazon, are in town for a visit. Hooray! So, our Sabbath School time is also tailored tomorrow in a special way. All Sabbath School classes our meeting upstairs in the Fellowship Hall at 10:30am, including Pastor Dan's class, the youth, and young adults! Michael Tuazon will lead and teach!

And as if that's not enough...there's potluck!
