welcome message from pastor dan

HAPPY SABBATH TO YOU! A hundred years ago, the Shakers would shake all their sins away. So today shake away the stress and pressures of the outside world, the week, the freeways, the malls, and the emails, and slide into the presence of God and the hugs of your church family!

TODAY WE WELCOME PASTOR JESSE SEIBEL. He is the Hawaii Conference Youth Director, and has been a friend of mine since he was a student at La Sierra University. His wife Shilhi is GGSDA Drama Director Sonny Boloico’s sister and the daughter of our church members Angel and Vida.

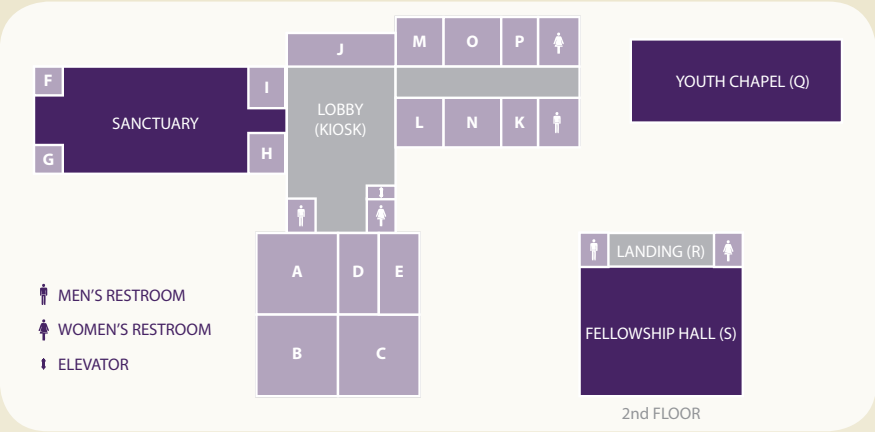

They have three terrific kids, and have been adding life and zest to the young people of Hawaii for several years. He not only runs their summer camp, seminars, and youth festivals, but also speaks for weeks of prayer and takes kids on mission trips. Pastor Jesse is a thinker, and a doer, and is on everybody’s “list” even though he refuses to consider ever leaving Hawaii!

TUITION AID—We are taking a second offering today, to help bless over 30 students who we helped send to Orangewood and to La Sierra University this past school year. We committed more than we had at the time and today as the school year ends we need a blessed offering to make sure that no one ends up with a debt that keeps them from getting a Christian education next year. Sitting here last week and watching as young people from our church earned the highest GPA, both principal’s awards, and many other awards in both academics and sports, I was very proud of GGSDA’s commitment our church to Christian education. If you can give $20 per person in your family today, we can help them finish well. You cannot spend your money and make more of a difference anywhere else!

God bless you all!

Pastor Dan
