I'm in the Kingdom of Tonga!

Far, far away from below the equator on a polynesian island in the South Pacific, I send you greetings:

Malo e lelei!

That's Tongan for hello, my friends! Thank you for continuing to pray for our group! There is so much to share, for sure in next week's newsletter and certainly when we get back home. For now, I would love to introduce to you a few amazing people you'll see this Sabbath at (the)Sanctuary!

First up, our guest speaker for the Sabbath, an awesome friend of mine, Pastor Chris Choi - please give him a warm Garden Grove welcome!

Some of you may know him from East Coast or West Coast Korean Camp Meetings, others of us from the Hillsong Concert! I know Pastor Chris from my first year, his last year in the Seminary at Andrews University. After graduating from Andrews SDA Theological seminary in 2008, he served as a missionary with Adventist Frontier Missions for 2 years in Southeast Asia. Then, he pastored at New York Central Korean SDA Church. But he's back home for a bit as a SoCal native, and continues to have a big heart for missions, discipleship, urban evangelism, and remains among my top 3 favorite bloggers. Here, you can read and decide for yourself: Weirdo by Pastor Chris. Join us with Pastor Chris, our band, and growing group of worshippers at (the)Sanctuary this Sabbath!

After Sanctuary Worship, the fun times keep rolling. Our very own Drama Director, Sonny Boloico, will lead out at Sanctuary Study!

And he's bringing the Drama Team. You do not want to miss this Sabbath!

10:30am Sanctuary Study

11:30am Divine Worship

3:00pm Drama Rehearsal

And finally, I'd like you to meet the young lady behind a ton of what we do at (the)Sanctuary!

Her name is Hazel Alvarenga, and she's smart. We love her! Hazel has volunteered as our Producer before & since launch, and now takes on the role of Executive Producer on the Worship Lead Team. She is our primary person for executing the administrative duties on our Worship Lead Team. In a manner of speaking, she makes the trains to run on time.

If you are inspired to join our team of volunteers, we would love to have you & certainly need your skills, gifts, talents, energy - it encourages us & it surely helps! Look out for our Volunteer Drive. We'll get you plugged in!

Pastor Shiphrah

PS: Yosemite is happening. Mid-August 2013.
