welcome message from pastor dan

GOOD MORNING! We are thrilled to welcome both you and Christian Edition, a terrific men's chorus, to our Divine Worship service today! I have had them sing for my worship services for many, many years as well as my father's funeral . . . they have just been the very best in leading worship for a long time! Although Calvin Knipschild has moved to the Northwest, he flies down every month for these concerts to keep the chorus's terrific tradition going!

While the chorus will present the majority of our worship service, I will still have a homily to continue our Gospel of Luke series. We are looking at the story of John the Baptist in Luke 3 this morning and asking the question: Is repentance good or bad? If John the Baptist was speaking out in the desert today, would anybody go? Do we still need to hear a repentance message today, or are we beyond that?

KEEP THESE COMING EVENTS ON YOUR RADAR: Filipino Camp-out Retreat in our Fellowship Hall tonight as well as the Young Adult Game Night in the Youth Chapel. February 1 is the next baptism if anyone would like to be included. And February 1 our Vietnamese Fellowship is hosting a very special new huge event for the whole church: Vietnamese New Year Celebration with a dragon dance, drama, musical comedy, fabulous food, singing, and much more! February 15 is Pastor Tony's first Sabbath here and he will be preaching for both services. No church has more going on than Garden Grove . . . be a part of it!

God bless!

Pastor Dan
