welcome message from pastor dan

IT IS NOT THE ACADEMY AWARDS we know, and there was no red carpet, lights, or Entertainment Tonight interviewing you on the way in this morning . . . but know that you mean as much to God this morning as any celebrity! David said he would rather have one day as a doorman in the House of God than a thousand days of being a king or a celebrity down here! May you enjoy a Sabbath with the people of God more than a day with all of those celebrities who endured hours of tedium Sunday night!

the Sanctuary AT 9:30AM: Pastor Tony is very excited about his series on the full spectrum of God's character for our contemporary worship service. Stand and bless God with all the passion and worship He deserves!

DIVINE WORSHIP AT 11:30AM: Our worship will be enriched with the awesome music of our all-star praise and worship team and a special prayer of blessing will encourage our terrific Orangewood Academy girls' basketball team as they play the league championship tonight. Today's Luke 6 message centers on why Jesus had to do almost all of His healings on Sabbath, which upset all of the church leaders? Who gave you the rules on keeping the Sabbath that you go by?

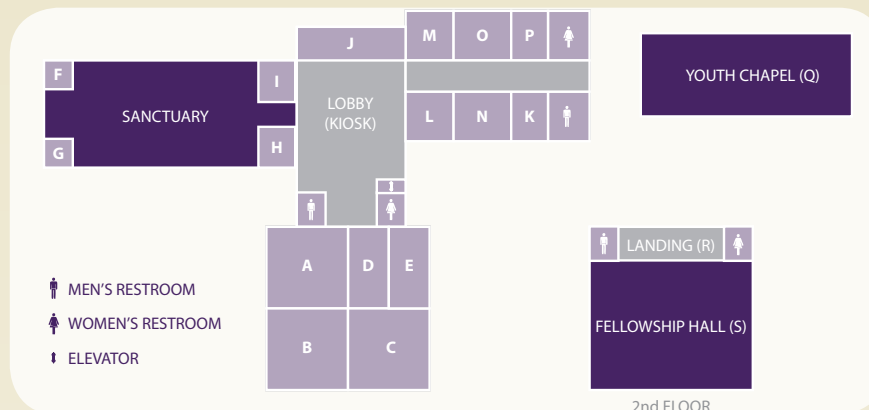

Go out of your way to do something healing for somebody today and see if you can recapture the magic Jesus tried to pour back into the Sabbath!

Thanks for choosing GGSDA today!

God bless,

Pastor Dan
