welcome message from pastor dan

WELCOME TO GGSDA, and WELCOME TO ALL OF OUR ORANGEWOOD ACADEMY TEAM. We are very, very blessed to have them/you here, and pray that our Garden Grove welcome to the faculty and staff lets them know in their deepest soul how important what they do is! We are cheering them on and praying for them to have a fantastic year at OA.

IT IS STILL CAMPMEETING 2014! We have moved it back into the Sanctuary downstairs because we needed more seats for Camp Meeting and we needed the Fellowship Hall for our lunch for the faculty. The Sanctuary has better air conditioning and sound equipment, so we are here in our home Sanctuary . . . but still keeping our Camp Meeting fire and spirit!

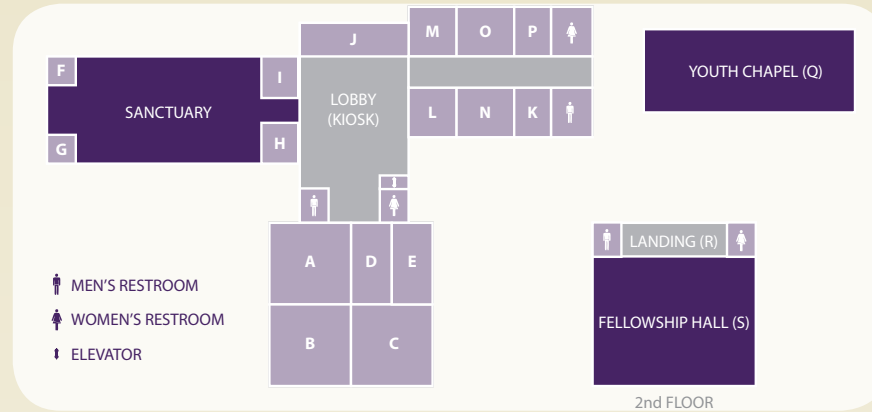

We had a terrific time at Oshkosh. Four of our young people were baptized: Jun Ma and Raechelle, Matthew, and Joseph Osorio. Three received the honors of Master Guide: Director Sandra Caldwell, Michelle Kiziak, and Alejandrina Osorio. The evening programs were 15's on a scale of 1 to 10 with simply fantastic drama presentations on the book of Daniel, a short homily by Pastor Sam Leonor from La Sierra to nail the point home, terrific music, and an off-the-charts ventriloquist. 49,000 people from all over the world sitting together as clubs in camp chairs under the summer sky was a pretty good taste of heaven! Put Oshkosh 2019 and 2024 on your bucket list!

TUITION AID: This is our big Sabbath for Tuition Aid. As of now, we need about $17,000 for the year . . . we may get more requests yet as the dust settles. We help about 10% of tuition per student, which is not very much, but it helps families make the commitment to Christian education. You can make a monthly pledge, give a lump sum, anything! It takes a village to put our children through school, and you will have a part in all that they do for the rest of their lives! Pray about all of our students' needs . . . who knows what God might do?

Happy Sabbath!

Pastor Dan
