welcome message from pastor dan

WELCOME TO OUR DIRTY HANDS SUMMIT! We have been looking forward to this for a long time, and we are happy that you are joining us. We think this is probably a first in the Adventist Church, to have an entire weekend focusing on this very practical, very real need in our community that cries out for our people, as followers of Christ, to stand up and do something about social justice! Pastor Sara-May and Pastor Tony have had this dream for months, and have worked extremely hard to bring the best resources to educate us, inspire us, and hopefully motivate us to do something to change the world in the name of Christ! Please stay or come back for the afternoon . . . you will be glad you did! After beginning about 12:45pm with lunch and mingling for Summit participants, we will have a very informative panel discussion followed by a one-on-one and booth interaction time, where the rubber will really meet the road. Then the Summit will conclude this evening with a Pizza and Worship Hour followed by an outstanding documentary film. Go for it all!

We welcome Kate Case, International Justice Mission's Regional Advocacy Director, West, and all the other guests, panel members, ministries, and services that are sharing what they do with us either as presenters or through their booths. Stop and ask some questions, you cannot get a faster education into this subject than by just walking through the displays today.

Working with concerns like this is one of the greatest ways in which Christianity shows its love and concern for humankind. Throughout the world, when there is a disaster or the medically underserved need a clinic or a hospital, who goes to help or who builds it? Often, it is Christians. And most of the best schools in the world were started by Christians. It is well documented that Christians are by far the heaviest donors to relieve suffering in the world. All this is rooted in the original ministry of Jesus immersing Himself into our world and relieving suffering wherever He was . . . and then finally suffering the worst suffering ever for all of us.

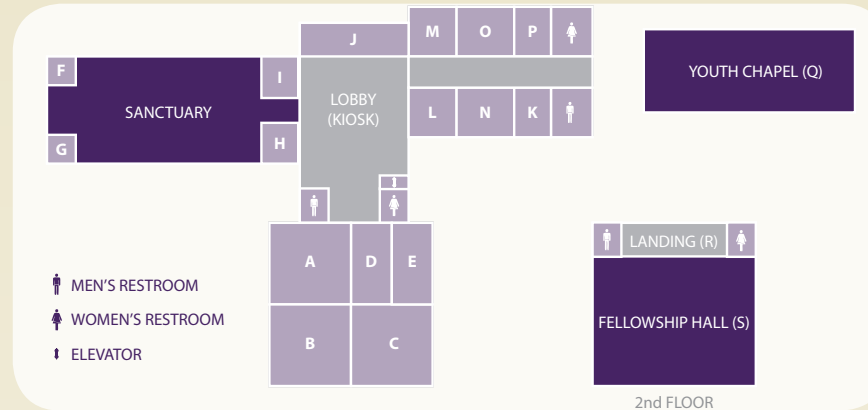

Again, we are blessed to have you choose to worship and learn with us today. We pray that you will hear a "still small Voice" whispering where God wants you to make a difference in the world!

God bless!
