welcome message from pastor dan

GOOD MORNING! AND WELCOME TO GARDEN GROVE TODAY! After huge Sabbaths the last two weeks, with the Heritage Singers the first weekend and fantastic Jon Henderson meetings last Sabbath, you might expect some "ordinary Sabbaths" . . . but there are just no ordinary Sabbaths at GGSDA. You could say the extraordinary is the ordinary at GGSDA!

TONIGHT IS INTERNATIONAL NIGHT AT 6:30PM with people from a multitude of countries sharing their own ethnic culture, food, and entertainment with us. This event has been a really fabulous night for many years at GGSDA and is one of the best reasons for living in southern California and being part of a truly multi-cultural church. Please join us and enjoy a really festive night . . . admission is free!

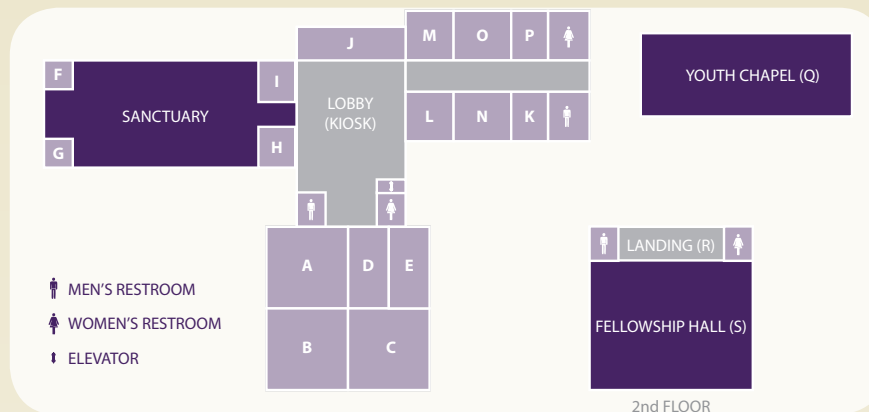

SECOND SERVICE AT 11:30AM Today we start a new message series: READY TO GO! We have taken a huge stand at GGSDA for grace, but there is always the lurking question: Is grace really enough? Is there something more, one more level, in order to be part of the Last Generation? There is a new documentary out about the Last Generation. So what does it take, to be ready . . . all the time? Will you have to make a final push in the Last Days in order to make the final cut? We have great music, a new drama, and a special gift for every single child who is here!

FIRST SERVICE AT 9:30AM Pastor Tony is focusing on Equality this week, and has invited Pastor Sara-May, Elder Penick, and me to join him on a panel where we will discuss our experiences with the issues of racism and women's equality in the church. He will wrap the discussion up with a homily, but, looking at the questions he has prepared, I think this will be a very, very interesting Sabbath morning!

Welcome again to Garden Grove. We hope you have been loved and hugged already this morning . . . blessings as you worship God with us today!

Pastor Dan
