welcome message from pastor dan

Long before the age of cell phones, I had a young adult in my church who needed to talk with one of the pastors. After many calls he could not reach any of us, so he assumed that the Last Days had come and we had all “fled to the hills” without telling him! The only place he could think of where we would have gone was our church-owned Pine Springs Ranch Camp in the mountains. So he drove all the way up there only to find that none of us were there. It was not quite the Last Days yet . . . and he had not missed out . . . yet!

While the Last Days had not arrived then, the Bible does say there will be a time when “one will be taken, one will be left behind”. What will make the difference? What does it take to be “ready” all the time, so you never have to worry about being “left behind”? And when is it that not being able to reach me will be the signal to head for the mountains or PSR or Joshua Tree State Park? We are discussing these questions in our current message series, Ready to Go! and Elder Penick is continuing our discussion of how to be ready in his message today.

WE ARE ELATED AND HONORED TO HAVE JIM MCDONALD SHARING HIS POWERFUL MUSIC WITH US AGAIN THIS YEAR! We have a long tradition of having him here, and supporting his ministry for children in France and around the world. If you came today because you heard he would be here, welcome to GGSDA . . . you will be blessed by Jim’s love relationship with Jesus!

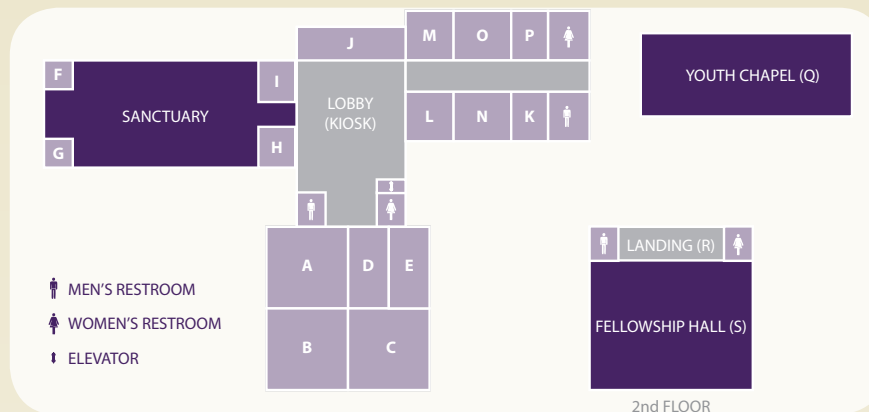

TONIGHT: Orangewood Academy’s Talent Show is at 7:00 pm. We are OA’s largest church/student group, so of course we have a great group of young people performing their special numbers tonight. They would love it if you could be part of the crowd cheering them when they perform and giving them a high-five when they are done.

If you are new to GGSDA, we are happy that you chose to worship with us today. If you are looking for a class, I would be thrilled to have you join us for my Pastor’s Bible Class in the Pathfinder Room. We think GGSDA is something special, and we hope you will agree when you leave us today!

God bless,

Pastor Dan
