welcome message from pastor dan

MABUHAY! That is our welcome today to our worship guests, The Singing Men from Loma Linda Filipino Church, who will be leading our music and worship at our second service. It is no secret that Filipinos love their music! We have been to churches all over the Philippines where there usually one or two official music groups in every church, no matter how small, with uniforms, a name, and a little sound system, that is ready to go everywhere to sing! AUP, our large university, has at least twelve outstanding, touring groups, and they are all terrific! So we will be blessed as they sing for us today!

JESSE CHURCHILL, OUR YOUNG EXTERN THIS FALL, IS SPEAKING FOR BOTH SERVICES, THOUGH WE WILL TAG-TEAM IN THE SECOND SERVICE. A theology major from Walla Walla University, he is getting close to graduating, getting married, and hopefully getting a call into the full gospel ministry next year. Jesse, who has helped found new churches, is very bright and musical . . . just a great talent, who has been a great blessing to both our Young Adult and Youth ministries. Today is his last Sabbath with us, so send him away with as much love and affirmation as you can!

THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE Today is the day that we bring as much food as we can to help 500+ families have a special Thanksgiving. It is just shocking how many children and families are hungry in OC. If you did not bring anything, it would be wonderful if you could give a small donation for "Pathfinder Food" or bring it to the office this week.

OCCARES Walk We hope that many of you will participate in the OCCARES's Walk tomorrow morning at 7:00am. Meet us at Mile Square Park to walk or run with us to fight hunger in OC. There is a $25 donation for adult participates and $15 for those who are 13 and under. We have bright T-shirts for each participant from GGSDA, so come stand up for something big tomorrow!

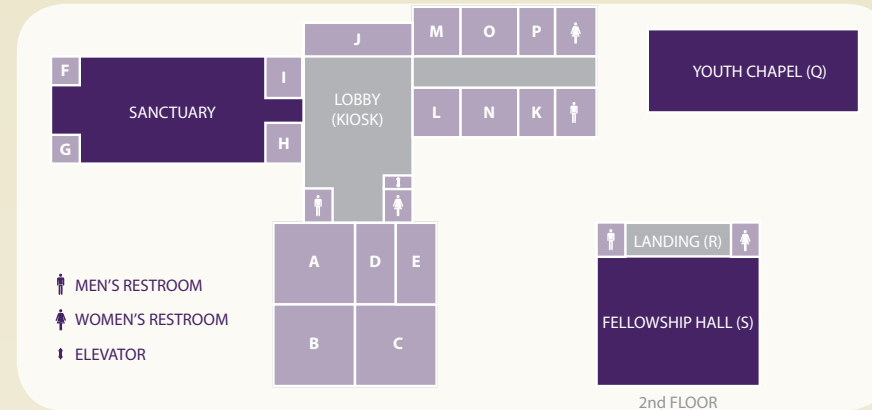

Congratulations to all of our GGSDA kids who performed at the Talent Show last Saturday evening. Pastor Sara-May recorded video clips of all of you for me, because I had to be at a wedding.

COMING UP! The Filipino Fellowship is having Thanksgiving dinner at 6:00pm Thanksgiving evening in the Pathfinder Room! Everyone is welcome! Then on Saturday, November 29, the Vietnamese Fellowship is celebrating Thanksgiving together with a program at 4:00pm and supper at 6:00pm.

God bless!

Pastor Dan
