Pastor Dan's Communiqué

June 6, 2014

Dear GGSDA Saints!

This Sabbath is our annual tradition of having our own GGSDA GRADUATION the first Sabbath of June, as part of the Orangewood Academy commencement weekend. We have a full 50 signed up to march down the aisle tomorrow--from Darren Sitala, graduating from Kindergarten, to two of our own pastors who just finished Masters degrees--Pastor Sara-May and Pastor Michelle! Be on time for church, get a good seat, and cheer for incredible lineup and make this a celebration for them that they will never forget! If you are the parent of one of them, please make sure they are in the Lobby by 11:15 getting in line. If somehow we haven't heard about your young person's graduation, please just come anyway and get in line and tell us just before they go down the aisle--we hate missing anyone! 8th Grade graduation was last night, and a terrific seven out of the 20 graduates were connected to GGSDA, just a great group of kids who we have loved watching grow up.

ORANGEWOOD GRADUATION:

No "THE WAY" tonight in favor of the Consecration Service at 7:30 tonight at the Anaheim Sunkist church.
Senior Class Night is at 7:30 pm at Orangewood
Commencement is at 3 pm on Sunday.

SANCTUARY will at 9:30 as usual, and then DIVINE WORSHIP at 11:30 which will include the Graduation Celebration and the graduation message, "SHAKE IT!"

MISSION TRIP Meeting is also right after Church in the Board Room, 20 minutes.

FILIPINIANA PROGRAM: Next Saturday night, Dinner at 7 pm, Program at 8:10 right after sundown. I have heard some of the plans, it should be a fantastic cultural night, and the $20 ticket sales and the Dedication booklet are all going to help rebuild a school and church that were destroyed by the typhoon in December.

SABBATH JUNE 21: Dedication for the 57 going on the Mission Trip, AND a special terrific choir from the Philippines.
