welcome message from pastor dan

WELCOME TO GGSDA / OC GRACE! Every Sabbath is a high Sabbath here, so while over the last four weeks, we have celebrated Easter, a Last Supper drama communion, and the 40th Reunion of the Escape from Saigon, today is a also a high Sabbath at Garden Grove! We have Danny Ferris, a terrific singer, with us today, and Dr. Elissa Kido, a truly phenomenal woman who—in a pretty definitive, truly scientific way—answered the old question: Do students have to give up some academic quality to go to our Adventist schools? And the answer is an unequivocal “no”!

Dr. Kido, who has served as La Sierra University’s School of Education Dean and Cognitive Genesis Research Director, is currently Director of the university’s Center for Research on K-12 Adventist Education and a professor of Curriculum and Instruction. She and her husband, Dan, a physician at Loma Linda, have been our friends for a long time! She and I will team-teach today’s Divine Worship message, and this afternoon immediately following fellowship dinner she will host a screening of the film The Blueprint, the 50-minute story made by a Catholic award-winning film maker documenting Adventist education’s great success story. So come and enjoy a wealth of food and fellowship upstairs in the Fellowship Hall and then enjoy the fabulous story Dr. Kido will bring us!

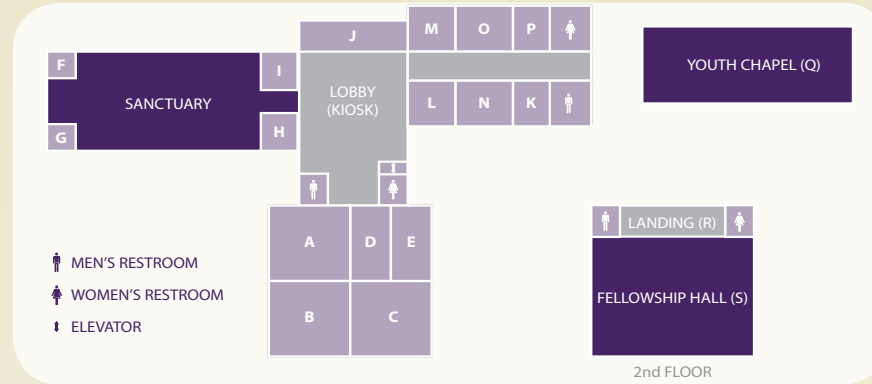

If you are here for our early contemporary service, find your way upstairs to listen to Pastor Tony’s message and bless God with your worship!

SINCE TODAY IS OUR LAST SABBATH BEFORE OUR VOLUNTEERS FLY TO SABAH, MALAYSIA FOR OUR 2015 MISSION, we will conclude Divine Worship with dedicating our Sabah team with prayer. If you have a little extra mission money, bless a student or some other project over there by slipping it into a tithe envelope marked “Sabah Mission Special Project” so you can bless someone in Sahah! We will do our best to send back blogs and video clips to keep the whole church involved in the trip!

God bless!

Pastor Dan
