welcome message from pastor dan

GOOD MORNING! WELCOME TO OC GRACE / GGSDA! We know it is graduation time, and many of you have one or more graduations to go to this week. Our family just flew back from Pacific Union College this morning, after going to the graduation of a nephew there last night. Tomorrow morning our own Mu Filemu graduates with his Masters in Ministry from La Sierra University . . . truly a great achievement for a working father with three children! And we are so, so proud of every single one who graduated from Orangewood Academy last week, and all the others who are graduating from many other institutions. Linda Bastos is home now, having just graduated from Andrews a few weeks ago. And Marcus Berkley, who graduated from Orangewood last week and was awarded a scholarship to play basketball at UC Riverside, was baptized and voted into the Adventist Church last Sabbath! Very, very cool!

EVERY ONE IS INVITED TO OUR FILIPINIANA CELEBRATION TONIGHT! Delight in the fabulous Filipino food, music, dance, and clothing tonight celebrating the Filipino Independence Day in the Fellowship Hall at 7:30 pm! You will enjoy this cultural evening to remember! Admission is free.

AND YOU DO NOT WANT TO MISS OH MY SON, SUNDAY, JUNE 21, 7:30 PM AT THE WALT DISNEY CONCERT HALL! We always say we wish Adventists would take the lead in doing something to put the message out in front of the rest of the public, instead of mostly preaching to the choir, writing books for our own people, and performing for our own vespers programs. Now we have an Adventist composer, who has written an entire opera about Jesus and the Cross, which will be performed at Walt Disney Concert Hall next Sunday, June 21! He is here today, bringing some of the music that will be performed there. We encourage you to support this fantastic venture . . . get your tickets and come! If you were doing this, you would be hoping that your Adventist friends would have your back and be supporting you and spreading the word, so let's do this! Hilda and I have our tickets, and it would be terrific for many of you to join us.

We are thrilled you chose OC Grace/GGSDA as your place to worship God today! Hope to see you tonight!

God bless!

Pastor Dan
