welcome message from pastor dan

WELCOME TO OC GRACE / GGSDA TODAY! After all the drama of our worldwide General Conference Session and the Ministerial Conference that I went to in Texas, it is a gift and a blessing to be home! And I hope today's sermon will make it even more clear how much this particular spiritual home means to us as pastors and to all of the church family. We are proud to be part of a worldwide church—and we stand in solidarity with 170 years of history with it—but we are also very blessed to be part of this particular local version of Church, and are absolutely committed to making it the best expression of an ACTS 2 prevailing church that it can be.

We want to give a special welcome to our guests today, the Siam Violin Youth Ensemble. One of its sponsors, Dr. Ruth, grew up with me in Chiangmai, Thailand, and we were thrilled to see her again at the General Conference Session after many years. The orchestra is touring in California this week before returning to Thailand, and we hope that you will love their music. Shower them with a great Garden Grove welcome! When you greet them, try putting your hands together with a little bow to give them a gracious Thai "wai," and love getting it back from them! If you want to go a little further, say, "Sawadee!"

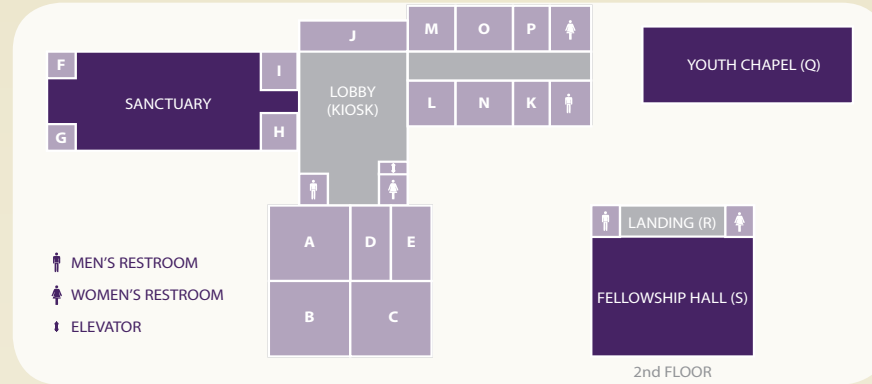

We are overjoyed to baptize two very special people today: Lawrence Doyle, and Rick Jacobs. We will tell their stories during their baptisms, but just know that the stories are fantastic and we hope that this day will be one they will never forget! Lawrence will be marrying our own Yvonne Lohstruh this Fall, right here at GGSDA, and Rick is married to our own Marivic Jacobs. The Jacobs have temporarily moved to Texas, but we hope that they will soon decide that OC is really their true home! Give them a great hug or high five as you go out the door today!

ATTEND OUR GENERAL CONFERENCE DEBRIEFING TODAY AT 2:00PM! If you would like to hear a firsthand report from the General Conference, or ask questions, or make a comment, you are invited to this debriefing in the Fellowship Hall. Join us for a light meal of haystacks and whatever other potluck items participants bring at 1:00pm, and come to the debriefing and be part of the discussion about where the Church is going here in the Last Days!

Happy Sabbath!

Pastor Dan
