welcome message from pastor dan

GOOD MORNING TO YOU AND WELCOME TO GGSDA / OC GRACE TODAY! As we move into school starting again and getting everybody back from traveling around the world, we look forward to an autumn filled with great worship, some terrific new ministries, and our church taking big steps towards reaching the next level for God!

We think you will love both services today! We have two of our favorites doing music today at Divine Worship—Peter Jarrett and Jay DuNesme with his trumpet. Both Pastor Tony and I are speaking from our favorite book, Revelation, and we hope that you will catch the passion we have for this incredible book.

A LIL' OLD FASHIONED FAMILY FUN We hope you will come back tonight for a great Family Fun Social Night at 7:30pm. Come and enjoy hot dogs, s'mores, a real campfire, a movie, and games outdoors in the back parking lot. It will be one of those splendid summer nights for which Southern California is famous!

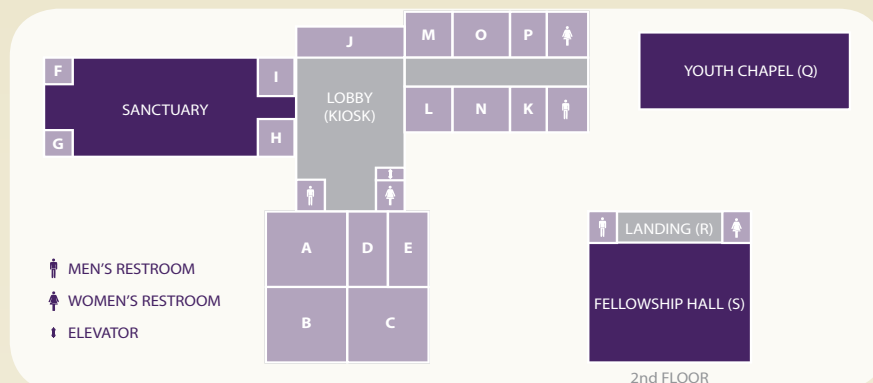

CORONA DEL MAR BEACH VESPERS IS NEXT FRIDAY AT 6:00PM! I have had the chance to walk some gorgeous beaches in Asia, Vietnam, and Europe this year, and every time I ask myself: Why don't I do this more at home since I have awesome beaches 50 minutes from my house and 20 minutes from where I work? We are joining with Orangewood Academy for vespers with our two sites next door to each other at the beach. Hope you will join us for great food, terrific fellowship, and glorious worship next Friday night!

May God touch your heart sometime during the services today! Give somebody a hug, and especially give Paula Hollmon a final farewell hug as she leaves for the East Coast on Monday! Nobody has brought more joy and smiles to our church than Paula over the last six years!

God bless,

Pastor Dan
