October 23, 2015

Dear Saints of GGSDA / OC GRACE:

Did you notice the October 22 yesterday? 171 years ago they sat on the rocks and waited, absolutely certain that they would be in heaven with Jesus that night—away from all this! And yet millions choose NOT to sit on the rocks! To take a chance that they were crazy, and just wrong. And how many are taking the same chance today—that the idea of Jesus coming back and taking people home is just wrong again. We're not sitting on the rocks this time—but we still absolutely believe that there will not be another Great Disappointment.

Here's the news re: this weekend:

CHOIR TONIGHT: 7:30 pm.

YOUTH: NO "THE WAY" tonight or next week—the next one is Nov. 6.

MOVIE NIGHT, "INSIDE OUT", is Sunday night, 6:30 pm, in the Youth Chapel.

OC GRACE FIRST (9:30am): Pastor Tony has the message this week, and here is his note about it:

"Tomorrow we'll delve into the calling of the disciples and why this was such a powerful statement to the culture of that time period. We'll define sin and sinners through the eyes of Jesus and we'll read about sinners who came to Jesus through God's love and compassion for humanity. We hope you enjoy the teaching entitled: "Love the Sinner. Full Stop."

DIVINE WORSHIP (11:30am): Orangewood Academy are bringing music, the praise team has some truly great songs for Communion, and the 5th Deadly Sin: "WRATH!" Maybe you felt you didn't have to worry about some of the others—this is one that all of us know! There will be another Fruit of the Spirit after church.

Earliteens Picnic at the Park
