welcome message from pastor dan

IT IS THANKSGIVING! And I challenge you today to see if you can really do Thanks Giving without a single cliché! Yes, we are all thankful for the big things: good health, family, freedom, God, and a future! Let us quickly go on to the next level however . . . the level where we take things for granted or we feel that we earn them ourselves and give God thanks for those! Thank Him for cars that start every morning, hot showers, the newspaper that arrives daily, whoever invented smartphones, sunshine virtually 365 days a year, the smile or hug you got at the door today, Thai food, Mexican food, dessert, music, humor, laughter, good friends, and 1,000 other things!

If you wish you could have somebody pray for you, you will have that chance in second service today! Slip out of your seat, get in line with one of the pastors or elders for a personal prayer with a hand on your shoulder and a heart praying for you by name. "Ask, and it shall be given you"!

We hope you had a wonderful Thanksgiving! And thank you all for your gifts of food for others so they could have a terrific holiday too! May we keep gratitude in our souls not only throughout the holiday season, but also every day! You will be blessed if you listen to the TED Talk by a Benedictine monk on "Gratitude" . . . do a quick search and you will find it. Powerful!

God bless!

Pastor Dan
