welcome message from pastor dan

IT IS A SPECIAL SABBATH IN THE LIFE OF GGSDA / OC GRACE! We are having a very special—and rare—service at 4:00pm this afternoon: Pastor Sara-May Colón's Ordination Service! "Back in the day" . . . 36 years ago for me . . . ordinations were at camp meeting. We all lined up across the stage on Sabbath afternoon and then we were prayed over! My father had the prayer for me even though I was only one of about 10 being ordained! Afterwards it seemed like 100 of your fellow pastors shook your hand and welcomed you into the fraternity of male-ordained Seventh-day Adventist pastors! Back then, none of your church members were there . . . none of the people that you pastored and did church with.

Today, however, ordinations are done in the pastor's local church . . . and we feel totally blessed to have Pastor Sara-May ordained here today. And we are fortunate to be part of a church, Conference, and Union that believes in total equality and oneness under the blood of Jesus Christ, so today you are invited to this sacred ordination service upstairs in our Fellowship Hall. Sara-May has planned a very unique and special service, with Conference officials and people who have loved her and mentored her over the years coming from all over to be here for her special day. And please stay to enjoy the light reception immediately following the service. There will be a basket with envelopes will be available where you can slip a little something in for a church-wide gift we are giving her.

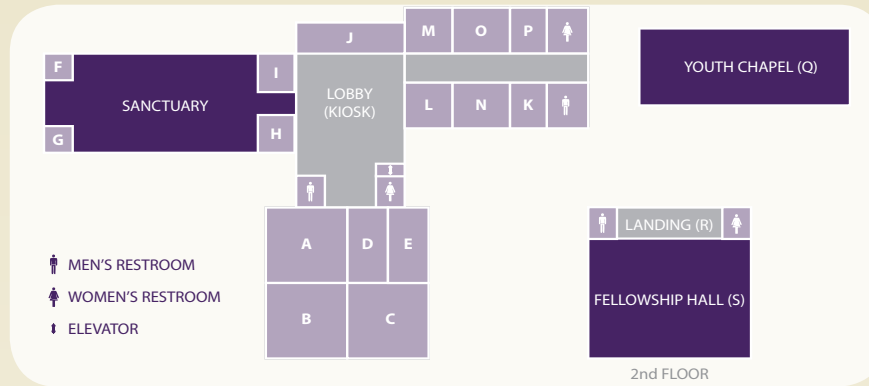

Pastor Tony and I are swapping pulpits today! I will speak on the Tower of Babel story in Genesis 10-11 for OC Grace First at 9:30am, and he will give the message The Work and the Life on the next chapter in our series on the book Steps to Christ. We will also have a wonderful baptismal moment in this service for Sophia Castellanos, and a short . . . but definitely thrilling . . . India Mission Trip report!

We are blessed to have you worshipping with us today! If we can do anything pastoral for you, please let us know!

God bless,

Pastor Dan
