HAPPY SABBATH—to you all, wherever you are tonight!

As I'm sure you know by now—it's a special Sabbath, a special weekend, as Pastor Sara-May's friends and family are coming in from all over, to be with us as we give our blessing and love and affirmation to a wonderful and one-of-a-kind pastor who has been a gift from God to all of us. The service is at 4 pm tomorrow, Sabbath afternoon, in the Fellowship Hall. The doors will open at 3:15, there are only 300 seats, so come get a good seat and listen to the music. Be sure to sign one of the guest books—so that Sara has a record forever of all who came to bless her on this day! There will be a light reception right afterwards at 5:30 to give you the chance to hang out with everybody and get your chance to hug her yourself.

We will have envelopes there and a basket at the table, so that if you would like to slip a few dollars in, we can give her a collective gift from the whole church so that the glow will linger on after tomorrow!

Pastor Tony and I are switching pulpits tomorrow. I have the message at First Service, from Genesis 10-11 on the story of the Tower of Babel. Pastor Tony will speak at Second Service on the next chapter in Steps to Christ, "THE WORK AND THE LIFE." We will also give a quick report with pictures of the India Mission Trip, and Pastor Sara-May and I will baptize a beautiful young lady, Sofia Castellanos!

PANCAKE BREAKFAST: There will be a fun breakfast, from 8-12 Sunday morning, upstairs in the Fellowship Hall—we would love to have you come and support Pathfinders And get a great breakfast! We're driving down to be part of it, it's an easy way to give back to some great kids.

See you all tomorrow!

God bless—
Pastor Dan
