You Are Invited to the SECC Mid-term Session Meetings.

The Southeastern California Conference is holding five Mid-term Session meetings around the conference this month and is inviting constituents to attend the meeting that is most convenient for them. The meetings will continue the conversation from the conference's 2013 constituency session. They will be sharing a rough draft of the action plans for the conference's four strategic priorities focused on "A Compass for Our Future." For more information email: apeterson@seccsda.org.
