Happy Thanksgiving and Sabbath, everybody—

Just a brief note to you all tonight, as our house is full of family. We hope that you have had a special time with whoever you spent Thanksgiving with. We are always the place everyone else comes to, because we have the backyard, and it is such a blessed time, especially now with another young generation running everywhere.

If you could use a reminder about gratitude, this TED Talk is always the best:

We will have great Thanksgiving services in all services tomorrow. Pastor Tony will be back at OC Grace First at 9:30, and I will have the message at 11:30 in Second Service. Because it is Revelation 19 and the Great Wedding Banquet, there will be a beautiful processional with some of our favorite couples coming down the aisle during Second Service! AND wedding cake for everybody after church!

Pictorial Directory: It just takes a minute to get a few great pictures of your family. We are taking ours tomorrow. Sign up at the Desk.

Potluck Next Week for December, and the Chunesudy Men's Chorus for Second Service.

Thanks many times over for the huge response in bringing groceries and canned goods—both the Pathfinders/Adventurers collecting from the community, and our own church family bringing bags and bags. The room was nearly full—just a fantastic response.

I will send out separately the official response from the Pacific Union Conference Executive Committee to the General Conference Unity in Mission document.

God bless you all!

Pastor Dan
